

NOTES FROM JIM TAYLOR, ILO PHILAKOREA 2014

The PHILAKOREA 2014 FIP International Exhibition August 7-12 is the only sanctioned FIP senior show scheduled during 2014. The deadline to submit an application to exhibit at PHILAKOREA 2014 is fast approaching.

Send your application forms to the Canadian Commissioner, George Constantourakis, before the end of November to assure consideration for your award winning exhibit. Check out the PHILAKOREA 2014 website for information about the exhibition. The IREX - Individual regulations for the PHILAKOREA 2014 Exhibition in Seoul - are published in full online at <http://www.philakorea.com>

A PHILAKOREA 2014 entry form is included on page 2. You already qualify to apply for 5-frames at an FIP International Exhibition if you have attained a vermeil medal at a RPSC National Exhibition. Perhaps it is time to test the big league?

Maybe a trip to Korea to view the exhibits and the event in person is also in your plans. Frequent direct flights to Korea depart from Toronto and

Vancouver as well as several United States cities. Canadian citizens holding Canadian passports do not require a Korean visa for the entry purpose of a short term visit (e.g. Tourism, Visiting friends or relatives, Attending business meetings) up to 180 days. Permission to stay is given at the time of entry. If Canadian citizens wish to engage in commercial activities during their stay in Korea, they must obtain a Korean visa (Source: Korean Embassy Ottawa).
